

ERASMUS MOBILITY FOR TRAINEESHIPS TO PROGRAMME AND PARTNER COUNTRIES (KA131)

A.Y. 2025/2026

This English version of the call has been drafted exclusively for purposes of publicity. For call implementation, dispute resolution and for all legal purposes, only the Italian version is valid.

Who can participate?

All students regularly enrolled in first-cycle (Bachelor's), second-cycle (Master's), third-cycle (PhD), Master programmes, Specialization Schools, or Single-cycle degree programmes at the University of Catania.

The grant can also be used by newly-graduated students, provided that the application is submitted during their final year of enrolment, before obtaining the degree. In this case, the traineeship must be carried out after graduation and completed within 12 months from the award of the degree.

Types and duration of mobility

Physical mobility

- Long-term physical mobility: minimum of 2 months (60 consecutive days)
- Short-term physical mobility: minimum 5 days and maximum 30 days, only for PhD candidates and Specialization School students

Blended mobility

- Long-term blended mobility: combines a mandatory minimum physical stay (60 days) - which can be split - and a period of virtual traineeship (zero grant).
- Short-term blended mobility: combines a mandatory minimum physical stay (5 days) - which can be split - and a period of virtual traineeship (zero grant), only for PhD candidates and Specialization School students.

Important: Erasmus mobility cannot be carried out entirely in virtual mode.

Eligible traineeship activities

The Erasmus traineeship can be used for one of the following activities:

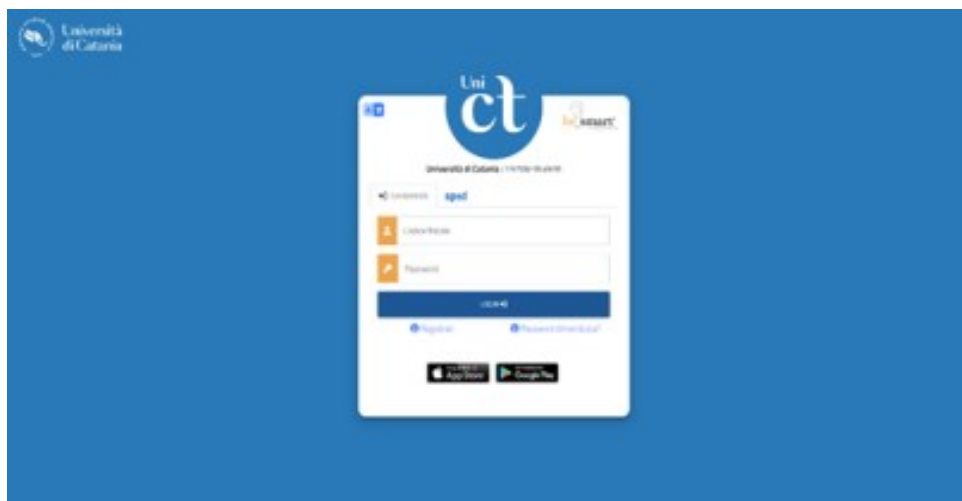

- Curricular internships
- Training or professional internships
- Research activities
- Professionalizing thesis activities

GUIDE FOR COMPLETING THE APPLICATION FORM

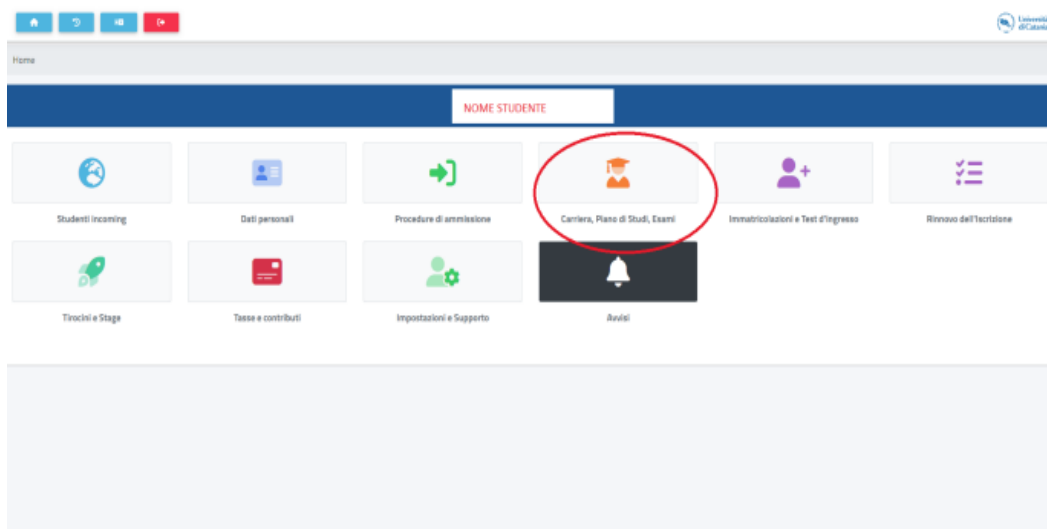

The University is committed to valuing gender diversity and ensuring equal opportunities for men and women. It adopts appropriate measures to prevent discrimination, including through the use of inclusive language. The use of the masculine form in this document is solely for purposes of readability and communication clarity.
