PH.D. COURSES – CYCLE XXXV

This is to inform candidates that the results of the selection procedure will be published without indication of their personal details.
Each score will be assigned to a code corresponding to the first eight (8) digits of the protocol number of each candidate's application.

Candidates can find the aforementioned code in the memorandum related to the application for the Ph.D. program (next to the heading "Identificativo") available on their account Portale Studenti:
